

Excellent

Good

Satisfactory

Needs Improvement

ATTENTION

Students are focused on the project and show interest in the subject.

The student pay attention to the task and participate in a moderate way

The student sometimes participate and is interested in the project

The student is not focus on the project and doesn't show interest on it

RESPECT

Student respect and does not disturb the group.

Student doesn't use to disturb the rhythm of the group

Sometimes the student disturb but most of the time respect the group

Student doesn't respect others and is an obstacle for the work of the group

PARTICIPATION

Student has an active participation both in the group and in the class

Student participate most of the times in the activities and classes

Students sometimes participate in the classes

Student never participate neither in the activity nor in the class

EFFORT

Student has made progress during the evaluation, showing effort

Student has made an effort, but could develop a little more.

Student has made little effort, has much to prove but is on the right track

Student has shown no effort at all and needs to develop further